Thursday through Sunday, March 6-9, Multiple-day outing to Anza-Borego State Park:

This repeat of a very successful club outing 5 years ago is taking place this coming weekend. Park employee Paul Johnson has been re-hired to serve as our guide to some remote places in the park. If you have not already made arrangements then your only option is to proceed alone and meet up with the rest of the group at some point on the itinerary. For information, check with Betsy (bgtreynor5@gmail.com).

Recalling the Events of February:

Monday, February 10, Digital Macro Image Evaluation Program

As a follow-up to his January program on macro-photography, Mark Comon of Paul's Photo served as evaluator for digital images specifically made to illustrate his principles and ideas for making macro photographs. It was a very interesting and fun evening. Thank you Mark.

Tuesday, February 11, Outing to LACMA

Participants in this outing came back raving about the featured exhibit "See The Light", as well as the permanent exhibits "Levitated Mass" (the big rock), and "Urban Light" (202 cast iron antique street lights). The outing was a great success.

Monday, February 24, Digital Printing

Jeff Ikemiya, the Print Meister of Paul's Photo, gave us an informative and interesting briefing on the history of digital printing and on the technologies open to today's amateur and professional photographers and graphics artists. This presentation was crammed with good information. Thanks very much Jeff, for your program.

A Parting Note:

I have been your editor for the South Bay Camera Club News & Views for over 6 years now. It is time to give someone else the opportunity to apply their talents to this important job. Besides that, I would like to help in the formulation and implementation program to help new comers learn about digital photography. More on that later. I can't do both jobs, so this will be my last issue of the newsletter which I will edit. Starting next month, Bob King will take over. Bob is both extremely qualified and enthusiastic about the job. He will do a great job. I will be around, just wearing a different hat. It has been a pleasure.
